

The Bed of Nails is back at TELUS Spark
Being Human Gallery gets a refresh with 10 new exhibits added

(September 27, 2016 - Calgary, AB) Over the past few weeks we've been hard at work adding ten new exhibits to the Being Human gallery. The gallery refresh was an opportunity for TELUS Spark to offer experiences for all age groups while providing exhibits that are physical in nature, adrenaline invoking and bursting with fun. A few of the new exhibits in the gallery are:

- Bed of Nails: A new exhibit inspired by the Bed of Nails at the previous science centre location. Test your resolve and overcome your fears by lying down on a bed of nails.
- Sip of Conflict: Come test the boundaries of reason and emotion. Will you drink from a toilet? We promise it's clean.
- Ah-choo: Take a peek, open the doors and get sneezed on.
- Surprise!: Discover what you look like when startled.

The refreshed gallery is now open to the public. Stop by and discover more about what makes you, "you" in Being Human.
